Armor of God

Spiritual warfare is a guarantee in our lives. While the enemy's plan is to destroy us, God gave us spiritual protection as believers. This five-week series will be an in-depth study on how we actively equip ourselves with the armor of God in our lives and how God calls us as believers to wage war against the enemy.

Armor of God is a 5 week sermon series.

The Table

Thanksgiving is a season of unity, community, and fellowship. We center around the table — the place where we gather to enjoy each other. The concept of “the table” extends past a physical table to the church. We come to God's table as a community of believers, bringing our authentic selves to receive all that God has for us. This four-week series explores the things we can bring to the table and what God has in store for us when we do!

Eras

We've all lived different eras of life — some good, some bad. Over time, we look back on our eras and see God's faithfulness, even in our brokenness. In this four-week series, we look at each generation of the matriarchs of Israel in the book of Genesis, and examine how God was at work in their lives and how He similarly works in ours.

Fix Your Focus

Focus is an essential element of success. Our spiritual lives thrive when we are focused on the right things. When our focus is pointed in the wrong direction, we can quickly find ourselves in a negative situation. This four-week series is an exegetical journey through the first half of Colossians 3 on how we can fix our focus on the things of God, not on things of the earth.

Walls

In this series, we look at the story of Nehemiah and the broken walls of Jerusalem. We all have broken walls due to sin in our lives. God's plan is for us to experience restoration as He finishes what He began in us. Regardless of how people come against us — God is in the process of rebuilding us from brokenness into fullness of life.

Cursed

The Halloween season is filled with spooky themes of curses. Not all curses, however, are fictional — there are real spiritual forces at work in our world. This four-week series takes a look at very real biblical curses in our world, and conversely, the blessings Jesus offers us to redeem these curses!

Christmas List

Whether you're a child or a fully grown adult, we all love making a good Christmas list. It's a combination of our hopes, desires, and expectations. This four-week Christmas series is based on Isaiah 9:6-7, working through the list of names that are given to the coming Christ: names that allow us to hope and desire our Savior with expectation!

Christmas List is a 4 week sermon series.

Don't Say

One of the most relevant yet uncomfortable conversations that your students are having is around sex and sexuality. Sometimes these topics become so taboo that the church doesn't speak about them. Scripture, however, has a lot to say about sexuality. In this four-week series, we'll address the topic of sexuality that your students are facing in their culture.

Gen Z Wants The Truth

In a generation overwhelmed by conflicting messages about love, lust, and relationships, Gen Z, now more than ever, wants the truth. God's word is the source of truth for sex! This four-week series is in partnership with Moral Revolution, an organization helping to tell the world about God's design for sex and sexuality and resource individuals to live in wholeness.

Gen Z Wants The Truth is a 4 week sermon series.

Modern Love

In a modern world, relationships and boundaries look increasingly blurry. Culture sells a modern love for everyone to belong to. The question is: what does the Bible have to say about it? In this four-week series, we'll focus on what Scripture has to show us about being the right person and finding the right person.

Holy Habits

Often, followers of Jesus have plans for family, finances, and their future, yet many neglect to form a spiritual plan to grow closer to Jesus. We must be intentional in order to hear from God, grow in faith, and form good habits that lead to a meaningful life. In this 3-week partnership series with pastor Noah Herrin, we draw from his book "Holy Habits" and dive into creating habits that will lead to a meaningful life with Jesus.

The Other Side

This January series is built intentionally for the conversations that happen around the new year. People commit to resolutions, wanting to make changes and forget some pain from the previous year. This four-week series will establish "new rules for a new season" as we focus on the Israelites' journey out of the wilderness and into the Promised Land and, ultimately, Jesus' new covenant with us as believers.
